PRIVATE SECURITY SECTOR NEEDS EFFECTIVE REGULATION - Sh. KIREN RIJJU

Minister of State for Home Affairs, Sh. Kiren Rijju while speaking at the Conclave, said: "There is a need to regulate the sector more effectively and provide a professional touch to it. Security of a country and its people cannot be left unorganized and it must be carried out in a disciplined manner."

Inviting precise recommendations from the industry, Sh. Rijiju said the PSAR Act, passed in 2005 needed to be implemented stringently as the industry has grown at a fast pace and as a result, the act has been unable to provide the requisite support.

The minister also said: "I would take up the issues on priority as private security not only helps in securing people but also provides employment and is a great revenue generator."

He added that he was aware about the issues related to wages of security personnel and the plea of certifying them as skilled labour and was working on resolving these issues. He mentioned "The private sector has so far played a vital role in the private security sector and the government will make all efforts to complement their efforts."

JHARKHAND GOVERNMENT DECIDED TO GRANT LICENCE TO PSA FOR 5 YEARS AGAINST SAME FEE

Govt. of Jharkhand had granted PSARA License to all security agencies for one year in the year 2011-12 which already expired long before. The security agencies had deposited a fee for Rs. 25000/- for whole of state which is applicable for 5 years as per the law. The decision of granting license for a year was taken by the Home department due to a minor clerical mistake while drafting PSARA State Rules 2010 in which vowel "a" was wrongly typed in English version before word "year" i.e. a year instead of five years. There after licenses were neither extended nor renewed rendering more than 100 agencies of the state license less for last 2 years.

CAPSI Jharkhand Chapter consistently raised the voice against this anomaly but no action was taken. Finally, chapter decided to move to court and for which several information regarding fee, validity period of license, etc. were sought by us through RTI last month. The department had no answer to the RTI enquiry about lapse on their part and finally it was decided to grant fresh license for a period of five years against the same fee already deposited by various agencies.

The decision was to be ratified by the Cabinet which was scheduled to be placed on last Tuesday, but in the mean time election was announced in the state and code of conduct imposed. This was the victory of our consistent effort to amend the provision of model Jharkhand Private Security Agencies Rules 2010.
